The Renewal of Baptismal Promises

‘Addressing the congregation

Fr. Jack: I invite you to respond “We Do”

as a sign that we are committed, as a community,

to renewing our promise

to live our baptismal responsibilities,

and to support in one another,

the call of the Holy Spirit.

Speakers are addressing the assembly as a whole

Do you recognize God the Holy One – as author of the cosmos – who recreates us in the Divine image, and is Sovereign over all of creation, and all time?

I do.

Do you accept Jesus as the Word Made Flesh – who, One-in-Being with the God-of-All – redeemed us from our bondage to sin and death – and is the model for how we can live our lives?

I do.

As a follower of Jesus, do you pledge to pray daily, to meditate on the Word of God, to build community, to live a life marked by hope, and to celebrate the Sacraments with faith, especially the Eucharist?

I do.

Do you acknowledge your need for compassion and forgiveness – and your vocation to be compassionate and forgiving toward those who might offend you?

I do.

Do you commit yourself to a gospel spirit of poverty and detachment – to resist the spirit of consumerism and materialism – to live a life of generosity – and to exercise a preferential option for the poor?

I do.

Do you dedicate yourself to seek justice in your personal interaction with others, and in the world at large – to help others in their needs, and in their aspirations – to work to end oppression – and to reject evil?

I do.

Do you believe the Holy Spirit is at work in our midst, that the church is universal, that we are graced with a cloud of witnesses to the love of God, that sin is forgiven, that God's love for all of creation is un-ending, and that life is ever-lasting?

I do.

Fr. Jack: This is our faith. This is the faith of our Church. We are proud to profess this faith in Christ Jesus. And let the Church say:

Amen

Sprinkling Rite Song of Fire and Water (G132)

Refrain

If we have died to ourselves in Jesus, then we shall arise to new life in him, Alleluia, alleluia!

We are fire and water, we are symbol and sign of grace,

We are the mystery, we are the image of God's own face. Refrain

In the water we seek him, in the wellspring of all that lives,
All who are thirsty, come and be filled with the life he gives. Refrain

Collect

Let us pray:

O God, who on this day through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought about by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 10:34a, 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. Jesus went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of Jews and in Jerusalem.

They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.

To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

The Word of our God

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8

A reading from the letter of Paul to the People of Corinth

Sisters and brothers, do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough?

Clear out the old yeast that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened.

For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.

Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The Word of our God.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel John 20:1-9

The Lord be with you.
And with your Spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the week,
Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,

while it was still dark,
and saw the stone removed from the tomb.

So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb,
and we don’t know where they put him.”

So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb.
They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in.

When Simon Peter arrived after him,
he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there,
and the cloth that had covered his head,
not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.

Then the other disciple also went in,
the one who had arrived at the tomb first,
and he saw and believed.

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

All shall be well! For on our Easter skies see Christ the Sun of Righteousness arise.

All shall be well! The sacrifice is made; the sinner freed, the price of pardon paid.

All shall be well! The cross and passion past; dark night is done, bright morning come at last.
