City Greens Market would like to partner with the St. Cronan Community in providing fresh, quality food to our neighbors. The Grove's neighborhood nonprofit grocery store, the market is located just up the street at 4260 Manchester. Our mission is to provide access to fresh, quality and affordable food to our neighbors; to promote healthy living in the community; to provide a safe and welcoming space for neighbors to interact; and to support local farmers as part of our extended community. We offer fresh fruits and vegetables, bulk grains and flours, staple goods like beans and pastas and soups, frozen foods, and a variety of quality and humanely raised meats, eggs, and dairy products. While anyone is welcome to shop with us, our members get a 30% discount on all food. And anyone - member or not - who purchases food with their EBT card at City Greens Market can take advantage of the Double Up Food Bucks program to increase their purchasing power - if they purchase at least $25 of produce, they can get up to $25 of produce for free. Fresh food, healthy choices, and a united and empowered community. That's our commitment. Please come check us out! www.stlcitygreens.org

Marianist Retreat Center Summer Schedule: This summer, the Marianist Retreat and Conference Center, located in Eureka, MO, is offering three unique retreat opportunities, and you are cordially invited! Dear ones: please check through the prayer list, and if there is anyone who has recovered and can be removed, please let Diane know. Of course, we will keep anyone in need of prayers, but the list is getting rather extensive and we wanted to update. If I have taken someone off that should still be on, please don't hesitate to tell me. Thanks!

Prayers Please: Kathy Bayless; Barry Buchek's wife, Mary; Trish Curtis' mother and brother; David Gaillardetz' father, Richard; Nick and Shirley Ambrose's daughter, Brigid Costello; Shelly Kurtz; Varrietta Anthony; Teresa Sullivan's friend, Caroline Bucci; Kathy Stock's niece, Jill; Fr. Jack's brother, Mike; Natalie Johnson and the Johnson family; Diane Calcaterra; Sr. Lynne's friend, Jan Berberich, SSND; Barb Sopp's friend, Joe Sinibaldi; Bob Barnicle; Paul Schmitt. Nick and Shirley Ambrose's cousin, Tammy Bayes; Tim and Else Hirzel's great nephew, Cameron Russell.

Some updates: Mary Buchek's cancer is under control, according to scans, but she is in the hospital, having a lot of pain and mobility issues. Barry will have a knee replacement August 27. Please keep the Buchek family in your prayers.

Our custodian, Willie Knighten, passed away suddenly on Tuesday. Funeral arrangements are still pending. If you would like to contribute to a trust fund for his daughter, Nina, who lost her mother last November and will be a senior in high school, please send checks to St. Cronan with "trust fund" in the memo. Further information will be forthcoming.

Celia Tackaberry's brother's funeral will be this Saturday at St. Cronan. Please keep their family in your prayers.

If you know of anyone who is feeling disconnected from our Community or has left, please let me know by clicking here: diane@stcronan.org. Please do not reply to this email, because we don't want the names going to everyone. We will reach out to them.

Homily: So it's a difficult Gospel about division. Jesus says he came to bring fire to the earth and cause division. It seems to me that one of the great dividers is truth. Truth seems to divide. Some people don't want the truth. That's what the first reading is about. Jeremiah spoke the truth and the government didn't want to hear that so they threw him in the cistern. Jeremiah was saved by a Cushite, a black African. St. Catherine of Sienna convinced the Pope to return to Rome from Avignon, where the Pope and his cortege were living in luxury. She spoke the truth, even though the Church leaders didn't want to hear it. Another irony that seems to divide people is welcome and acceptance. Jesus is criticized all the time for welcoming tax collectors and sinners and prostitutes. We don't like those kind of people, so why are you accepting them and welcoming them? Welcoming seems to divide. One of the first things that Pope Francis did was to wash the feet of a Muslim. His first visit was to the port where migrants were entering Italy. He went there to welcome them and even brought some of them back to the Vatican while the rest of Europe were trying to stop them and send them back. They were not going to welcome them. The pope went against that because the truth of the Gospel is welcome and acceptance. And then the Gospel says that the house will be divided 2 against 3, father against son, mother against daughter. I thought about what sometimes happens in a family when a son or daughter comes out as gay or lesbian. The consternation that can occur, the complexity, sometimes the anger or confusion. It sometimes breaks up families. Relatives don't want them invited. So often, the parents that do accept, they're shunned at their own parish. They had to go to a different church because the parish didn't like that they loved their gay son or lesbian daughter. Division comes from the Gospel, and what we can push for is tolerance. An intolerant person is a person who disagrees and punishes. Disagreement with punishment. Tolerance is disagreement without punishment. Then there is a false tolerance, where someone just agrees with everything that's going on. There are values at stake that need to be said and stated. May we pray for that kind of tolerance that we can disagree without trying to punish people, or demean them or put them down. At the same time, maybe our church needs to pick up the skill of lighting a fire. St. Oscar Romero of El Salvador who lit a fire in that country, that our people need to be dignified, and, like Jesus, he was murdered. Let's pray that we can light the fire. (from Fr. Jack's homily)
