Homily:

Fr. Anthony shared stories of his work among the youth of the Philippines, and how their youth program has saved many of their young men from dealing in drugs by providing Christian support for them. He told of one young man who was responsible for his family and thought about making money in drugs, but who instead joined their youth program, where his family received the support they needed. He became a priest and is now the director of the youth program. As the Gospel suggests, it is up to us to support our neighbors, who are those who may be different from us. Please be generous in supporting Fr. Anthony's mission.

Blessings!
