Issues and Inspirations: “Just Songs”, a Concert of Susan Marting’s Original Music Inspired by Catholic Social Teaching.

Susan Marting, a St. Cronan parishioner, has been writing songs for the past decade or so. Going by the stage name Meramec Valley Girl, she plays her Americana songs on guitar or banjo. Lately, she has been accompanied by fiddler Sarah Heuermann, who adds beautiful emotion to each piece. And Susan’s husband, Andrew Marting picked up the bass in his retirement and now fills out each song with deep bass notes. Together, they’re playing Sunday, February 11 from 1:00-3:00 in the sanctuary at St Cronan, highlighting social justice songs influenced by Susan’s years as a Catholic Social Teaching instructor. A love offering will be accepted for St. Vincent de Paul, as both works of charity and justice are necessary for change. A reception will follow in the Hospitality Room. Please save the date!

REPLY ALL: Just a little reminder that when you are responding to someone on Cronan Talk, please DO NOT use the REPLY ALL option....please only reply to the person sending the email. Many people are unsubscribing to Cronan Talk because of too much back and forth and too many emails.

Archdiocesan Concert: “O Sacred Banquet” is a concert featuring Medieval to Modern Sacred Music devoted to the Eucharist. This event will take place on February 2nd at 7 p.m. at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. Please see the website for more details. <https://www.polyhmniasaintlouis.com/>

Weekly Envelope Users: In your monthly packet of weekly contribution envelopes in January, you should have received an envelope marked “First Offering”. This envelope is used for making a contribution to off-set the costs involved in offering a weekly contribution envelope to our parishioners. The suggested offering is only $3.00, but if all users contributed, it would cover all of our costs. Please consider making a donation if you are an envelope user. If you would like to discontinue the use of your envelopes, please contact the church office and we can make those arrangements for you. Thank you.
