Gathering: Here At This Table (Whitaker) ... BB309

Refrain

Come and be filled here at this table.
Food for all who hunger
and drink for all who thirst.
Drink of his love, wine of salvation.
You shall live forever in Jesus Christ the Lord.

1 You who labor for justice,
you who labor for peace,
you who steady the plow
in the field of the Lord,

2 You with lives full of pain,
you who sorrow and weep,
you, beloved of Christ,
come to him, come to him!

3 Children of ev'ry color
in ev'ry land,
you are his own,
he gathers you gently.
Don't you grow weary,
for when you run,
you run with the Lord!

4 You, the aged among us,
holy, faithful and wise,
may the wisdom you share
form our lives and our world!

Gloria: Mass of Christ the Savior (Schutte) ... BB914

First Reading

A reading from the First Book of Kings

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her,

"Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink."

She left to get it, and he called out after her,

"Please bring along a bit of bread."

She answered,

"As the Most High, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die."

Elijah said to her,

"Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the Most High, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the Most High God sends rain upon the earth.'"

She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the God of Israel had foretold through Elijah.

The word of God.

Responsorial: The Cry of the Poor-Ps34 (Foley SJ) ... G46

Refrain

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth.

Let me soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor. Refrain

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas;

And to hearts broken God is near; who will hear the cry of the poor. Refrain

We proclaim your greatness O God, your praise ever in my mouth;

Ev'ry face brightened in your light, for you hear the cry of the poor. Refrain

Second reading

A reading from the Second Letter to the Hebrews

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands,

a copy of the true one, but heaven itself,
that he might now appear before God on our behalf.

Not that Christ might offer himself repeatedly,
as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary
with blood that is not his own;
if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world.

But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice.

Just as it is appointed that human beings die once,
and after this the judgment, so also Christ,
offered once to take away the sins of many,
will appear a second time, not to take away sin
but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

The word of God

Gospel Acclamation: Celtic Alleluia (O'Carroll & Walker)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

“Blessed are the widows: examples of faith and charity;
Like them, be generous beyond your comfort.”

Gospel Reading

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds,

"Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues,
and places of honor at banquets.

They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation."

He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them,

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the bread we offer you: fruit of the earth and work of human hands, it will become for us the bread of life.

Blessed be God forever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the wine we offer you: fruit of the vine and work of human hands, it will become our spiritual drink.

Blessed be God forever.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his holy Church.

Accept, O Lord, the prayers of your faithful with the sacrificial offerings, that, through these acts of devotedness, we may pass over to the glory of heaven. Through Christ our Lord. Amen
